Before we began using MapleTime software, managing our donations and mailing of receipt letters was quite time-consuming... We've been using the MapleTime donation management system now for almost two years, and really praise the product highly. It is simple and straightforward to use... training our volunteers to use this software is quick and easy. Arlin Technologies also customized their software to our needs, and continue to add new features and improvements, so the software is worth even more now than when we started! The flexibility of the product and the incredible support given by Arlin Technologies really make a difference...
